

Short Course 9: The Political Scientist as pre-Law Advisor

- Sponsor: Pre-law Advisors National Council
- Contact Person: Grancis Graham Lee, Department of Political Science
Saint Joseph's University, 5800 City Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19131
E: glee@sju.edu P: 610-660-1753
- Registration: Faculty - $35 Graduate Students - $10
Fee made payable to NAPLA
- Fee Address: Dr. Frank X.J. Homer, University of Scranton, Scranton, PA 18510
- Time: 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM
- Locations: Morning Session: Suffolk University Law School, Cont. breakfast at 8:30 AM Afternoon Session: Boston University Law School, begins at 1:30 PM, reception at 3:45 PM
- Instructors: Anne Brandt, Law School Admission Council
Dr. Frank X.J. Homer, University of Scranton
Dr. Francis Graham Lee, Saint Joseph's University, Coordinator
Dr. Charles Neal, McDaniel College
Dr. Jerry Polinard, University of Texas, Pan American
Dr. Kathy Uradnik, Saint Cloud State University

This mini-course is designed both to improve the skills of political scientists responsible for pre-law advising and to allow advisors to see the facilities of two of the area's law schools. The morning session will be held at Suffolk University Law School. The afternoon session will take place at Boston University School of Law. Topics to be addressed will be: Setting Up a Pre-Law Office, Communicating with Pre-Law Students, Advising the Minority Applicant, the Mechanics of the Application Process, Preparing Students for the LSAT, Pre-Law Resources on the Web, and Financial Aid. Continental breakfast, luncheon, and reception in the afternoon with drinks are covered by the fee. Registration cost for faculty is $35; for graduate students, $10 and includes both the morning and afternoon sessions. Please send registration to Dr. Frank Homer, University of Scranton, Scranton, PA, 18510.