

Extension of Remarks

Legislative Studies Section

American Political Science Association

January 2005, Vol. 28, No. 1

Republican Rule: Ten Years of Republican Control and Institutional Change in the U.S. House

- ✚ Editor's Introduction: Republican Rule: Some Reflections on a Sea Change, Sean Kelly, Niagara University
- ✚ The House that Newt Built: Or Did He? Don Wolfensberger, Congress Project, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars
- ✚ The Centralization of Power under the Republican House Committee System, John Baughman, Bates College
- ✚ The Influence of the Legislative Environment on Conference Committees during the 98th and 106th Congresses Jeffrey W Ladewig and James Bourbeau University of Connecticut
- ✚ The Republican Revolution and the US Senate, Nicol C. Rae Florida International University

Coming in July 2005
New Approaches to Data Collection in Legislative Studies