

2017 Teaching & Learning Conference Awards

Michael Brintnall Teaching & Learning Awards

The Michael Brintnall Teaching and Learning Award supports attendance at the annual APSA Teaching and Learning Conference. The fund is named in honor of former APSA Executive Director Michael Brintnall, who played an integral role in founding the conference more than a decade ago.

The award covers the costs of conference registration and a one-year complimentary APSA membership.

The 2017 Brintnall Award Winners

Jaira Harrington, PhD

Wake Forest University

Edward Kammerer, Jr., PhD

Occidental College

Ray Mikell, PhD

Jackson State University

Kendralyn Webber

Saddleback College

Help Support the Brintnall Award

The Brintnall Award is made possible through the generosity of APSA friends and members. Your gift to the Brintnall Fund will ensure the continuity of this award and its ability to support attendance at the Teaching & Learning Conference for years to come! For more information about how to make a gift, visit www.apsanet.org/donate.