

Short Course on Advanced Placement Government and Politics Courses (U.S. and Comparative)

WHEN: Friday, February 2, 9:00am-12:00pm

WHERE: APSA Teaching & Learning Conference
Sheraton Inner Harbor, Baltimore, MD
Room: Chesapeake III

WHAT: The course will include a plenary presentation on upcoming changes to the AP Government and Politics Programs (U.S. and Comparative), and breakout presentations on teaching topics in U.S. and Comparative Government and Politics. This session will be of interest to AP and college educators.

WHO: Workshop presenters include

- Jennifer Horan—University of North Carolina Wilmington, Comparative Government and Politics AP Chief Reader
- Stephen Meinhold—University of North Carolina Wilmington, U.S. Government and Politics AP Chief Reader
- Katy Hariger—Wake Forest University and co-chair of the U.S. Government and Politics Test Development Committee
- Raul Madrid—University of Texas, co-chair of the Comparative Government and Politics Test Development Committee
- Krista Dornbush—College Board, Director, AP Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment
- Cathy Brigham—College Board, Senior Director, Academic Relations

HOW: There is no cost to participate. Registration for the TLC conference is not required. Instructors from all levels of teaching are encouraged to attend!

To confirm a spot in the course, register online here. Registration is requested but not required—walk-ins are welcome.

Questions? Email teaching@apsanet.org.