Introduction

• There are currently 52 APSA Organized Sections.
  – Our newest section, South Asian Politics, was approved at the April 2022 Council Meeting

• Sections are a critical part of APSA and the APSA staff are committed to supporting the growth and development of the sections.

• Section membership can be added at the time of renewal or anytime throughout your membership.

• In 2019 we introduced innovation in our dues structure with multi-year memberships.
  – In addition to Life Members, Multi-year members now receive Organized Section specific renewal notices

Member Lists

• APSA member lists available upon request:
  • Lapsed section member lists
  • Current APSA members based on fields of interest

• Member lists should only be used to facilitate communication with section members for section related announcements only. Member lists should not be shared, sold, or traded.

• Journal membership roster requests should come to the membership department who will send the roster directly to the journal publishers.
New Section Proposal 30-day Comment Period

• Updates to the Organized Section Handbook, regarding new Organized Section proposals were passed by Council.

• Organizers of potential new organized sections are encouraged to reach out to Chairs of pre-existing sections to request statements of support for inclusion in their proposal.

• Once a proposal for a new section is received, the proposal will be circulated to pre-existing Chairs for a 30-day open comment period. If you have any concerns about the creation of the new section please be sure to respond within the time period.
Every section has its own landing page on apsanet.org/sections that provides general information about each section including:

- Current Officers
- Section dues
- Award committees and nomination deadlines

All pages are currently being updated with the 2023-2024 information that has been received.

Update requests can be sent to membership@apsanet.org
APSA Connect

• Log in at connect.apsanet.org. Each organized section has a community, forum and document library.

• Improved APSA Connect platform that allows section officers and members connect with each other, share resources and information, and network with colleagues through discussion forums, document library, and directory.

• Section chairs, including some section officers, are allowed administrative access to edit, manage and/or update information listed on their section groups, forums, and microsite.

• Questions about access and privileges should be directed to APSA Communications communications@apsanet.org

• Instructions on how to navigate your section community including posting messages, uploading documents, editing email settings, and changing your profile image can be found at: connect.apsanet.org/how-to/.
The Discussion forum can be used to post:

- Section updates & announcements
- Elections
- Calls for papers
- Job announcements – All job listings must be posted to eJobs prior to being posted to APSA Connect
- Meeting notifications

Reimbursable Expenses

Organized Sections are encouraged to support their members through awards (book, article, poster, dissertation, career, etc.), travel grants, and research grants.

Additional reimbursable expenses include award plaques, shipping costs, web services, and catering expenses.

APSA is unable to provide reimbursements for Annual Meeting Registrations or APSA Membership/Section dues.

Please contact finance@apsanet.org or membership@apsanet.org if you have any questions about whether an expense is reimbursable.
Requests for Payment:

- All payment requests should be submitted to finance@apsanet.org accompanied with:
  - W-9 (W-8 international); ACH Authorization form; Wire Transfer Form (international); invoice or other supporting documentation
  - Payment request form signed/authorized by the treasurer. Once received, APSA staff will update with the correct account information.
  - Please submit these materials as a complete package
  - Blank copies of required forms can be downloaded from the “For Section Officers and Organizers Page”

- For FY2024, award accounts outside of the section’s general account can disburse 4% based on the 12.31.2023 account total.
Finances

Receivables:
- Deposits are processed daily
- APSA allocates dues to each section on a monthly basis
Financial Reports and Forms

- APSA will distribute reports on a monthly basis to the section Treasurer.
- Year-end reports are provided once the books have been closed for the fiscal year.
- All finance forms can be found on the “For Section Officers and Organizers” webpage or by email request to finance@apsanet.org
